Dear Sir,

I have been requested by General Botha to transmit to you the attached letter, dated the 29th June. This communication was passed through me by the Prime Minister of the Union in view of the fact that he was not aware of the best address to which to send it.

I have been favoured with your English address by Mr. Gowers of Mr. Masterman's Office.

Yours faithfully,

High Commissioner.
