PLEASE ADDRESS
ALL LETTERS
TO THE SOCIETY.

April 1st, 1916.

Dear Mr. Robinson,

Accepting your assurance that Mr. Raemaekers believed that his Exhibition continued after the 1st February we are prepared to agree that this shall be so on the understanding :---

1. That the extra amount spent by the Society during February and March in advertising with the General Omnibus Company and Tube Railways amounting to some £78 or thereabouts, which was incurred by the Society on the assurance that the whole of the admissions came to them, ^{be} ^a charge on the same in addition to the £12.
2. That on and after 13th ^{when} March the reproductions were placed in one room, and an Exhibition was opened in the other, One half of the admissions only shall be credited to the Raemaekers Exhibition. Mr. Raemaekers contribution of £12 ^{towards advertising} a week being halved in a like manner. ¹
3. That in accordance with the agreement any cartoons which Mr. Raemaekers has done since 1st February and which he considers suitable, shall be placed in the Society's hands, and 75% of these shall be for sale.
4. That no claim is made for any percentage on sales of reproductions or subscriptions for books.

(2)

5. The Society shall not be required to open their Galleries on Easter Saturday or Monday. Should it be deemed advisable to do so, a sum shall be allowed out of the entrances on these days to the staff for foregoing their holiday.
6. The Exhibition to continue open until the 29th day of April, and to continue for a further fortnight if deemed advisable. That no time to be lost in obtaining from all necessary sources the cartoons intended for the Exhibition.

As regards your contention that the glasses of the frames belonging to Mr. Raemaekers, they belong to the sold cartoons, and will have to be placed upon them before we can deliver them.

Yours faithfully,

The Fine Art Society

A Perry Robinson jr.
