

WELLINGTON HOUSE,

BUCKINGHAM GATE,

LONDON, S.W.

14th June 1916.

Dear Mr. Raemaekers,

The British Government has invited one or two foreigners of distinction to visit the Front in France and would appreciate it as an honour if you would form a member of the party as its guest. The date on which they leave London is July 5th.

It would give me very great pleasure if I were able to secure your acceptance of this invitation.

Yours sincerely,

S. A. Guest.
