

10, DOWNING STREET,
WHITEHALL, S.W. 1.

15th August 1919.

Dear Mr. Raemaekers,

I am so sorry but I fear it is impossible to arrange an interview for you with the Prime Minister as his time is so fully occupied just now with industrial questions, as I am sure you will readily understand.

Yours very sincerely,

William Lutherdale

P.S. He makes a big speech on Monday
& goes away to France for a month, immediately after. W.S.
