

THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

August 28, 1919.

My dear Mr. Raemaekers:-

At last your cartoons have safely arrived here in Washington, being forwarded from Paris, and I cannot express to you my delight in receiving such a wonderful example of your artistic skill. It will find, you may be sure, a conspicuous place in my house. I wish to thank you most heartily for your kindness in sending me the picture which expresses so fully the sentiment of brotherhood between France and the United States.

I shall be very glad to forward to Mrs. Richardson the cartoon which you sent for her. I am not quite sure which Mrs. Richardson it is as there are two Dr. Richardsons in the city, but I will make inquiry and as soon as I have found the proper person I will send to her the cartoon.

With my very best wishes to you for the present and for the future, believe me,

Very cordially yours,

Mr. Louis Raemaekers,
Woodthorpe,
Sydenham Hill Road,
London, S. E., England.
