

THE SECRETARY OF STATE
OF THE UNITED STATES
OF AMERICA

Hotel de Crillon, Paris
June 5th, 1919

My dear Mr. Raemackers:

You are extremely good to be willing to send me one of your cartoons here and I shall await its arrival with impatience. I was sure that there had been some mistake in my not having received one in the United States, because I was sure that you would not forget your promise.

It will be better to send it here as I have no indication when we will be able to leave Paris. We are becoming impatient to be away but matters are dragging in a most discouraging way. I hope that you will visit Paris before the Conference breaks up. You would doubtless find food for your pencil and some interesting ideas with plenty of local color which no one can acquire at a distance.

With my sincere thanks for your courtesy I am

Cordially yours,

Louis Raemackers, Esq.,
Woodthorpe, Sydenham,
England.
