Dear Lord Northcliffe

In a few days I am going to France but before leaving I would think it a great favour if you could grant me a 10 minutes talk.

I have reasons to believe that what I have to tell you will interest you from more than one point of view, so that I do ~~not~~ feel justified in asking ~~you~~ a few minutes of your precious time.

I would therefore be grateful if you could give me an appointment at your convenience.

Believe me very ~~truly~~ yours
Louis Rasmussen
